Jolly up Askew Road and join the festive cheer with wreath-making workshops in Askew Road Library, carol singing, mince pies and a joyous Christmas lights "Switch on" on Starch Green on 12th December, generously sponsored by Finlay Brewer and W6 Garden Centre. And to get the New Year off to a promising start we will also host an event to culminate the Twelve Days of Christmas on Twelfth Night (evening of 6th January 2014)

WHAT WILL HAPPEN?

Launch event on 12th December at Starch Green possibly featuring a local celebrity, two turtle doves, three French hens and ten lords a leaping...

Wreath making workshops will be held at Ravenscourt Glasshouses on the 7th December and at Askew Road Library on 14th and 19th December.

Christmas trail featuring the Twelve Days of Christmas along the Askew Road featuring sponsored wreaths that will be displayed by local businesses

WHY GET INVOLVED?

Build on the friendly sense of community of Askew Road, a road featuring mainly independent shops and bring people together. In addition, your time and involvement in this community event is what will make the difference.

We are looking for singers – dancers – and musicians as we want to bring to life the items mentioned in the 12 Days of Christmas song to life!

We are also looking for artists and schools to help make decorations 5 gold rings, golden pears etc

If you have any other ideas please get in touch. One suggestion is to produce a recipe leaflet featuring items mentioned in the Twelve Days of Christmas song. Perhaps restaurants and cafes could provide some free beverages for carol singers and launch participants

EDIBLE ASKEW ROAD CHRISTMAS

THE TWELVE DAYS OF CHRISTMAS

On the twelfth day of Christmas,
my true love sent to me
Twelve drummers drumming,
Eleven pipers piping,
Ten lords a-leaping,
Nine ladies dancing,
Eight maids a-milking,
Seven swans a-swimming,
Six geese a-laying,
Five golden rings,
Four calling birds,
Three French hens,
Two turtle doves,
And a partridge in a pear tree!
